Agnes Tolmie

I seek your vote for re-election to the Executive Council on which I represent members in the Finance and Legal Sector. I have worked in the RBS Group for over 25 years and have been a Trades Union Representative for most of this time.

I am a Senior Union Workplace Representative and am familiar with the issues and problems facing workers at all levels within our Sector and have first hand experience of the effects on staff, including the impact of the current economic crisis of which we are all aware.

The key areas we should focus on include restoring the name and value of hard working finance workers who have had their reputations tarnished by the image of the real culprits, who through their own greed and mismanagement, brought about the current financial crisis. WE know who they are!

I believe we must continue to tackle the inequalities that exist around performance management and corporate bullying. In our workplaces bullying is a major issue and huge shift in attitudes needs to take place. Staff should have a fundamental right to feel valued and rewarded for the contribution they make to business. Bullying should never be accepted as a motivational tool in any of our workplaces.

On the subject of equality, there are still too many instances in our industry of where people are not valued for their diversity. This is an area where I will continue to campaign for change.

I have outlined my key priorities. Please support me to achieve them.

Thank you
