Executive Council Candidate 2017

CAT

Jasvinder Singh Gill

Jasvinder Singh Gill

I work for Swissport formerly KLM at Heathrow Airport and am the senior shop steward. During the 20 years I have represented Unite members from local level up to and including the European Works Council.

I have also been involved in the wider Union Regional, National CAT committee's and London Eastern Regional committee. Also one of current Executive Council members for CAT.

My commitment to all members has been demonstrated by my active support for members in every major struggle at our airports. I have also supported members at LSG Skycheffs, Gate Gourmet, BA BASSA and disputes in our own company. I have been to many campaigns and Trade Union demonstrations.

Why am I standing for election?

- Representing airport workers
- Ensuring all regional airports benefit from the growth of Heathrow.
- For years our members have been on a downward spiral in pay & conditions and staffing levels, we need to start fighting back to change the trend!
- The Union to support it's members and shop stewards in a concerted effort to challenge these trends.
- Safeguarding the Union's finances and getting a better investment on the dispute fund for our members.
- Union officers to focus on challenging employers industrially, rather than relying on legislation.

Our Union needs real change now rather than empty promises. Please help us make the change by voting for all independent Unite Alliance candidates. Please use your vote to back myself, Nigel Stott and Trudi Lanigan. Together, with my colleagues we can begin to talk about what Unite could be, rather than what it should be.
