

Kieran Pallett

Dear Colleague

I am seeking your branch/workplace nomination for the 2017 EC election.

My name is Kieran Pallett. I became a member of Unite after starting my apprenticeship at Bombardier in Derby in 2009. I first became actively involved in the trade union movement in 2011 after the Thameslink fiasco which left the future of UK train manufacturing in doubt.

From there I was elected shop steward in 2015 and I am currently a delegate on the RISC, Regional Council, NISC, Manufacturing Combine and represent Unite on the East Midlands Rail Forum. Amongst these I have always fought to ensure Unite has a strong voice on all issues relating the Rail industry and our sector as a whole.

Although new to the EC by nominating me I promise to ensure that Unite's presence within our sector gets stronger and that our member's voices are heard clearly.
