Nigel Stott

Firstly, and perhaps differently to other candidates, I ask that you do not vote for me.

If you are happy for the union to simply plod along, shrinking slowly but surely then I freely admit to not being the best choice for your vote!

Not if you want more of the same and for ordinary members like you and me to be denied an independent voice.

Because I believe that more of the same is simply not good enough.

If Trade unions are to flourish and not become consigned to the role of hand wringing spectator at our own decline, we need to find a way to become relevant and central to our members' lives again.

We must respect our past but not live in it. We need a vision for our future.

We need to take the opportunity this election provides to build an EC, that ensures your best interests are looked after -regardless of who our next General secretary is.

Our union is all that stands between us and an avaricious management class intent on driving the pay and conditions within aviation to the bottom.

This will not be achieved by a clinging on to a rose tinted version of what we were.

We must be the best we can be now, not tomorrow or 30 years ago.

If you want to see this union to be what it could be, not what it was or promises to be, then please support myself and fellow Unite Alliance candidates Jasvinder Gill and Trudi Lanigan and we can begin to make that happen.

Thank you for being a member of our union Unite, it would be an honour and a privilege to represent you.

Together let's make our Union do what it says on the tin, with action not words!
