Executive Council Candidate 2017

CAT

Trudi Lanigan

VOTE 4

Trudi Lanigan

I am Trudi Lanigan and I seek your support and vote for the Women's designated seat for Civil Air Transport on the UNITE Executive Council.

I have been a senior shop steward for BASSA for over twenty years. We built the Branch from fewer than a thousand members to close to nine thousand today, the result of hard work, tenacity, encouraging and supporting members to achieve the very best terms and conditions.

My core beliefs are, fairness to all, listening and ensuring that every member is represented with respect and equality. I have consistently proven that I can be relied on and trusted to do this.

I sit on the Civil Air Transport Regional Industrial Sector Committee and London and Eastern Regional Committee, doing all I can to ensure that Aviation remains at the heart of UNITE's Industrial strategy. It is only this industrial scale strength that today's voracious employers understand, no single Branch understands this better than BASSA due mainly to the momentous dispute with British Airways in 2010. A dispute eventually resolved thanks to the solidarity, comradeship and strength shown by the committed UNITE members all across the aviation sector.

Change is inevitable and unavoidable and we must ensure that our union will always change for the better. No one person can do that alone hence I am standing with others to make that happen; I am standing as part of the Unite Alliance. Please help us to change this Union for the better by voting for all three of our Unite Alliance CAT candidates, Nigel Stott and Jasvinder Gill and me.

My industry, my region and our Union needs real change now not promises of what could be. Together, we can begin to talk about what Unite will be, rather than what it should be.

Thank you
